

CompuSystems expands sales and service teams

BROADVIEW, Ill. – CompuSystems, Inc. (CSI) has announced the addition of two new members to its sales and service teams to further support the company's business growth. Jackie MacPherson has been named director of client relations and Charlie Quick has is national sales manager.

In her newly created role, MacPherson will serve as a liaison between the operations staff and clients. She brings over 16 years of event management and hospitality sales experience to CompuSystems. Most recently, she was senior vice president of operations for Travel Technology Group. She also held convention management positions with SmithBucklin & Associates. MacPherson earned an advertising and public relations degree from Drake University and is a member of the Professional Convention Management

Association (PCMA).

Quick comes to CompuSystems with eight years' experience in the tradeshow and events and exhibits industry. He has served in key sales roles with Lewellen & Best Exhibits and with Coyote Exhibits & Design and is a Certified Exposition Manager (CEM). He is a graduate of Loras College with a degree in business administration and marketing. Quick will work primarily from Galena, Ill.

CompuSystems (www.compu-systems.com) is a full-service registration provider for the exposition industry, offering a broad range of services for show organizers, exhibitors and attendees. CSI helps customers achieve the best possible tradeshow experience by providing innovative technology and cutting-edge products and services. ■